

Ada Public Library
and
The Ada Historical Society
present “Remembering
The Great War” on Wednesdays in the month of September.

All are welcome.

This is the 100th year anniversary of World War I. Retired Professor, Dr. Karl Roider of Louisiana State University, will teach a course on World War I the four Wednesdays in September. The course will take place from 3:30 - 4:30 p.m. in Ada Public Library's community room and is free to all. For more information call the Library at 419-634-5246

Session Titles

September 5: Origins of War

September 12: Trench Warfare

September 19: USA in The War

September 26: End of The War