It was a Disney Relay for Life. Ohio Northern University students hosted the fundraiser to fight cancer at the King Horn Center during a 12-hour blitz from 6 p.m. March 20 to 6 a.m. March 21. The campus Relay had raised over $10,000 toward its $17,000 goal before the evening began. Monty Siekerman took these photos of the event for The Icon.

- Woody and Mickey greet people at the registration desk for ONU Relay for Life at the Sports Center. The students raise a significant amount of money annually to help cure cancer.
- Kappa Alpha Theta sorority was among many groups participating in ONU Relay for Life at the Sports Center.
- Up for bid...guys and gals bid for dates to raise money for ONU Relay for Life. Here are some of the candidates that an ONU student could bid on for a date.
- Hunter Nuzum of Bluffton and Presley Purcell of Kenton, dressed as a character from “Frozen,” walk the Sports Center track to raise money.
- Larissa Harpel represents the Kenton Relay for Life at the ONU Relay for Life to show support from other county chapters.
- Zack Goodchild and Elizabeth Yaeger haul in a heavy container of coffee for ONU Relay for Life all-nighter event.
