

Ada

Art

Ada HS students in Kewpee Art Show
Photos by Monty Siekerman

Shelby Vanatta won Best of Show at the 27th annual Kewpee High School Art Invitational. Five other Ada school students took home awards from the show which was held at ArtSpace/Lima. Shelby's sculpture is titled Traveling Toddlers. She is a junior and the daughter of Mitchell Vanatta and Darla Crownhart. Her sculpture was judged the best of 104 pieces entered by students from 21 high schools. The exhibition included works in various categories, including sculpture, photography, painting, digital media, printmaking, mixed media, sculpture, jewelry, and drawing. The Kewpee Exhibit is sponsored by Kewpee Restaurants of Lima. Gary Wells is the Ada HS art teacher.

Jake Taylor, junior, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Taylor, first place, sculpture award, Woodland Warriors.

Liz Selover, senior, daughter of Natalie and Eric Selover, second place ceramics award, Face Bowl.

Kaylee Spangler, senior, daughter of Kris and Kim Spangler, second place printmaking award, Calming Meadow.

Alexandra Boyadzhiev, junior, daughter of Dr. Kristo and Irina Boyadzhiev, third place painting award, Unrealistic Expectations.

Allison Howard, senior, daughter of Scott Howard and Rebecca Spradlin, first place, drawing award, Self-Portrait: I Look to the Light.