ADA'S DOG SHOW... at the Harvest and Herb Fest'

Dogs - large and small, with or without costume - annually parade up and down Main Street with their owners on H&H Fest.

Dogs are popular in Ada, especially when the university is in session.

There are a few dog-friendly stores, but on Fest' Day, they own the street: getting a few pats, checking out other canines, nibble on some dropped crumbs.

Here's a series of photos of just a few of "man's best friends" with their owners on Saturday.

(Photos and story by Monty Siekerman)

Megan Daley with Hank, a Black Lab.

Will Silkin with Buddy.

Luke Sheets with Maisy the Mastiff surrounded by kids wanting to pet her, toddlers wanting to ride here.

Bill Pelger with Wrigley, a Mastiff mix.

Karl Roider with George, a Basset Hound.

Maya Scullin with Wendy, a Dachshund.

Emily Peters with Louis, a Bichon/Yorkie mix.

Payton Williams and Morgan Dirmeyer with Matt Sutton's young Black Lab, Ziggy.
