

The logo for 'Ada ICON' is positioned in the upper left. 'Ada' is written in a bold, purple, sans-serif font. To its right is a yellow silhouette of the state of Ohio. Further right, the word 'ICON' is written in a bold, orange, sans-serif font. The entire logo is set against a white rectangular background.

Ada  ICON

The background of the entire page is a photograph of several green palm fronds resting on a wooden chair with a woven seat. The fronds are long and feathery, with a central stem. The wooden chair has a light-colored finish and a curved backrest. The lighting is bright, suggesting an indoor setting near a window.

Palm Sunday in Ada

First United Methodists celebrate
Photo essay by Ken Collins

Wave those palms!

The Sunday before Easter is a Christian celebration. It's Palm Sunday. Ken Collins photographed portions of the service at First United Methodist Church, Ada. His photos tell a story that don't need words as this celebration was a universal event in churches across America.

I love thee because thou hast
first loved me, and purchased
my pardon on Calvary's tree; I love thee for wearing the thorns on thy brow; if ever I loved thee, my Jesus, 'tis now.

I love thee because thou hast
first loved me, and purchased
my pardon on Calvary's tree; I
love thee for wearing the
thorns on thy brow; if ever I
loved thee, my Jesus, 'tis now.