

SAY BOO & SCARY ON

Ada Icon - It's where Ada gets its news!
www.adaicon.com

Ada celebrates Halloween 2017

Ada celebrates Halloween 2017

Story and photos by Monty Siekerman

Perfect Halloween weather brought out many trick or treaters in Ada for two hours on Thursday evening.

Lots of treats were handed out; there were too many smiling faces for any tricksters. Main Street was the “in” place to be with hotdogs, juice, cookies, popcorn and lots of wrapped candy for ghosts and goblins of all sizes and ages.

Vancrest was another popular stop where kids could load up on handful of candy from the many residents who sat in a semicircle to greet the children and fill their bags.

Yes, Vancrest stockpiled 400 pounds of candy for the visitors. ReStore handed out 600 bags of popcorn. The Kiwanis Club was stuck with a lot of candy since the parade they annually sponsor was washed out.

So, club members handed out the candy on Thursday and the sweets were gone in a flash because Main Street was a busy place.

Easter House turned into a spooky house.

They escaped unharmed.

Greeted on the front lawn.

Dogs like candy, too,
but never chochoate.

A new kind of library patron.

Main Street full, full of happiness.

"Yum, that looks good."

ReStore popcorn passer-outers.

“That one will do nicely, thank you.”

Tavern 101 handing out food, of course.

Sometimes a guy's gotta take a rest.

Beauty and The Beast

A baby mouse... or maybe a future
Mouseketeer

Elvis and the Gorilla.

Free hotdogs at the fire station no matter what planet you are from.

Goodies from Vancrest residents.